a. Action Reported by Field
1. Weather conditions and mechanical difficulties with the aircraft prevented a scheduled dark of the moon raid in Southern Albania during the month of June. However, Field reported that a good possibility exists for the two scheduled light-of-the-moon raids to be mounted prior to the 3 July deadline for flights over Albania.
2. One half million copies of the special "Spahiu-Jakova Purge" leaflet have been crash printed and are ready for the low level B-57 raid over Durres and Tirana. 3. C advised C, chief of the Albania Desk in Athens, that their liaison has been requested to provide any possible reaction comments on OSSURE activity which may be available through the Italian Legation in Tirana.
b. Observed Results
1. Field reported that they were greatly encouraged by the reported "very favorable effect of leaflets in Albania in recent months." A separate dispatch commenting on the favorable evaluation of OSSURE activities by the Musaj family as well as by Hyfit Basha and Hymet Topelli will be forwarded to Headquarters soon. 2. Field believes that the improved method of leaflet distribution from the aircraft by means of charts and large canvas bags has increased their leaflet load substantially and is partially responsible for reaching more of the Albanian people with leaflets more effectively.
c. Security Factors
No new information.
